

WOMAN'S CLUB

In club circles the week was one of thorough enjoyment. Each day witnessed the meeting of at least one of the city's many clubs, and besides the interesting programmes given, the members enjoyed delightful little talks over the tea cups and made plans to be carried out during the dull season following holiday time.

Ladies' Literary Club.

The programme at the meeting of the Ladies' Literary club Friday afternoon was in charge of the "current events and current literature" sections. Miss Buchanan's paper, "Concerning Literary Style," was given in a happy vein. Mrs. Panton reviewed the well known book, "No. 5 John Street." The feature of the afternoon was a discussion of the "Life and Works of Robert G. Ingersoll," given by Mrs. D. F. Walker, Jr. The paper was an interesting one, and was followed with sections from the writings of Ingersoll and opinions of his character by prominent men.

In speaking of this famous man, Mrs.

men of the city should form a "Constitutional League." Mrs. A. V. Taylor was appointed to interest the different clubs of the city in the project, as it is believed that only through club women can these reforms be inaugurated. The work of reform that it is hoped club women will interest themselves in could only be outlined at yesterday's meeting, but it is expected that during the coming winter the plans will be fully developed and a new line of reform begun.

Author's Club.

The afternoon at the Author's club on Wednesday was one of thorough enjoyment to its members. Mrs. Augusta Grant gave a pen sketch of the life of Josiah Quincy. Mrs. Crismon entertained. Mrs. Merrill spoke at length of James Madison. "The Lives of John and Abigail Adams" was the subject of Mrs. Lyman's interesting paper. Afterward selections from their writings were read and the members all entered into an informal discussion of the "St. Malo: Sketch of Chateau Lian," Mrs. Louise Smith.

"St. Paul de Leon: Tower of Kreiskor: The Cemetery," Miss Hunt.
The history section meets Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Groo will speak of the life of Henry VIII. The battle of Lewes and the Provisions of Oxford will be given by Mrs. Mathis. "Matter Paris" will be the subject for the one-minute talks.

The regular meeting of the Utah Women's Press club will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 20, in room 208 Templeton hotel. Program:
Original sentiments.
A paper on mines and mining, by Miss Bessie Shires.
A descriptive paper from Mrs. L. D. Alder will be read.
Current topics, by Mrs. Emily Richards.

The regular meeting of the Reviewers takes place tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hal W. Brown. "Woman and Economics," Charlotte Perkins Stetson, will be the subject, discussed by Mrs. Georgia Shaw Carleton.

The regular meeting of the Council of Jewish Women will be held in B. B. Jordan rooms Wednesday, Nov. 22, at 3 p. m. The following programme will be presented:
"Sketch of the Life of Felix Mendelssohn," Mrs. Herbert Hirschman.
"Max Nordau," Miss Helen Rothchild.
"Current Events," Mrs. Harold Schiller.

The home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet next Saturday at 3 p. m. The art exhibit committee will report and there will be a discussion on "The Proper Development of the Child" (Cosmopolitan, November, 1899). All members are urged to take part and the teachers of the city are cordially invited.

Needlework Guild.

Directors and officers of the Salt Lake branch of the Needlework guild are reminded of the adjourned meeting, which will be held Monday afternoon, Nov. 21, at 3 o'clock in the hall of the Kenyon hotel. A large attendance is earnestly desired.
S. O. S. NELDEN, President.

OGDEN CLUBS.

Child's Culture Club.

Ogden, Nov. 18.—The Child Culture club met at the home of Mrs. Clara Wright, 527 Twenty-third street, Friday afternoon. After the usual routine programme was opened with a paper on "Merchant and Craft Guilds of Medieval Times," read by Miss Whalen. The merchant guilds was a union of the traders for protection against the feudal lords, the craft guilds the outgrowth of the ancient combination of the slaves or working people against their masters. These guilds united and founded the free cities. Of the league thus formed three cities of modern times still hold the freedom of the old regime, governing themselves, viz., Lubbeck, Bremen and Hamburg. In the old time every one belonged to some league from the knight to the craftsman. The church itself was a league to which every one belonged and church and state were one. The free men of the cities—that is the land holders—formed the municipality and from them the governing hand was chosen. To this the craft guilds and the free men joined. Waldman became burgomaster he instituted a law by which two-thirds of the governing board be formed of the craftsmen and the free men. This force pushed the aristocrats aside, aristocracy had little power unless backed by the crafts guilds.

The two strongest leagues of the middle ages were the Rhenish league, comprising seventy cities, and the Hanseatic, comprising eighty-five cities. These free cities were a bulwark for the emperor against the foreign princes.

After an interesting discussion, the reading of "Spencer's Education" was continued. Mrs. Martha Wright being the reader for the afternoon. The study of "Physiology and Psychology" were especially recommended as part of our school curriculum, and the education of boys and girls for parenthood, instead of leaving them to chance, is the duty of the greatest of all functions, is absolutely essential. The world could have stronger and brighter men and women if this also proved a part of the school curriculum.

The club subscribed for the Colorado and Utah Women, a paper devoted to the club interest of the two states. Several members signified a willingness also to subscribe.

The letter of thanks to Corinne S. Brown was signed by the members present.

Edith Wright, who was the guest of the afternoon, became a member of the club. The communication from the Women's club of Salt Lake was read and received the approval of the club. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Sarah Taylor, 433 Twenty-second street, Friday afternoon, Dec. 1.

Campers' Club.

Ogden, Nov. 18.—The good feeling and justification which seemed to permeate the very air of the canyon, appears to have been so thoroughly imbibed by a number of the campers this summer that its effect is still in evidence. As a result a club to be known as the Campers' club has been formed with the following, who spent several weeks in the canyon this summer, among its members: Mrs. and Mr. George Reynolds, Ad Kuhn, Abe Kuhn, Reynolds, George Matson, Al and Lewis Matson. Each week some member of the club acts as hostess and on Monday evening this pleasant task fell to the lot of Mrs. George Matson. Cards were the enjoyment of the evening, the place cards (pen sketches) and tallies (sketches) being drawn up. The club's title, "The Campers' club," was the prize winners. Here Miss Leda Kuhn and Dr. Dalrymple.

BRIGHAM CITY.

The Ladies' Reading Circle.

(Special Correspondence.)
Brigham City, Nov. 15.—The Ladies' Reading circle met with Mrs. Pierce Tuesday evening. More than the usual number of members were present and an interesting session was held. Mrs. J. D. Call acted as critic for the evening. The first portion of the literary hour was devoted to the study of Ruskin's "Sesame and Lilies," after which Mrs. Charles Wright read from "Men in a Boat." Mrs. Standing followed with an able paper on "Etiquette in the Home." The programme was concluded by the reading of the critic's report.

The members will meet at the home of Miss Triest Box, Nov. 21. Mrs. Vilate Wiggins and Miss Ella Box were guests of the club.

PROVO CLUBS.

Nineteenth Century.

(Special Correspondence.)
Provo, Nov. 15.—The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of Mrs. Sutton Friday afternoon. Members of the club responded to roll call by quotations from Bryant. The news of the week was pleasantly given by Mrs. Sutton and a very interesting paper on "Treason," the French author, was read by Mrs. Corfman. The "Round Table" was ably conducted by Miss Kellogg. Subject: Educational Ideas of the Nineteenth Century.

Miss Reynolds, representing the lecture association of the academy, was a caller and brought to the attention of the club a course of lectures to be given by Mrs. Charles Wright. The lecture before the association at the academy.

The club passed a vote of thanks, expressing their appreciation of the music rendered at the entertainment at the tabernacle last Monday evening.

Madame de Loery, who had not been heard in Provo for some time, delighted the club with her paper, "For All Eternity," Professor Lund pleased all by his ability, both as pianist and vocalist, while Miss Monahan favored the club with her beautiful rendition of the "Waltz" by Faust.

The club passed a resolution thanking Mrs. J. C. Graham for his generosity in furnishing programmes for the entertainment.

Utah Sorosis.

(Special Correspondence.)
Provo, Nov. 17.—Utah Sorosis met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Hannah Tucker in the chair. In the absence of Mrs. John Swenson, the time for her paper was taken up by the members discussing private club business. After recess, Mrs. M. M. Warner read pages 1 to 15, "Education of Man."
Mrs. Jacob Evans was elected a member of the club.
Mrs. Hannah Tucker invited the club to an afternoon tea on President's day, Nov. 23.

SENATOR THURSTON IS MARRIED

HE LEADS MISS LOLA PURMAN TO THE ALTAR.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The marriage of Senator John M. Thurston of Nebraska and Miss Lola Purman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Purman of 125 Q street, was solemnized this morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, the Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Dr. Bristol at one time occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist church of Omaha, Neb., and is a warm friend of Senator Thurston.

The wedding ceremony was attended on by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, in addition to Mr. Edgar C. Snyder, an intimate personal friend of the groom. The witnesses to the ceremony were the senator's sister, Clarence L. Thurston, a junior in Harvard, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Tracey of New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Purman, father and mother of the bride; Mr. Carroll Purman, brother; Miss Purman, sister; Mr. Melickjohn, Miss Snyder, Miss Rosamond Brockway of Boston, Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Purman and daughter, Mrs. L. C. Purman, sister of the bride, Helen, Gladys and Stanley Purman and Mr. Wing B. Allen.

The bride was attired in a plain but elegant white gown, with a picture hat to match. She was unattended, and the ceremony was as simple as possible. The front parlor, in which the ceremony was performed, resembled a fifth floor with palms and anullax lending an effective background to the wealth of color.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom, accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Fay Purman, and Miss Rosamond Brockway, drove to the station, where a private car of the Union Pacific was waiting to convey them on a two weeks' tour southward. They left at 10 o'clock for Southern California. Their itinerary contemplates visits to all the well known southern winter resorts, including Atlanta, New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, El Paso, and the party will go to Denver, thence to Omaha, the senator's home, for Thanksgiving.

The senator and Mrs. Thurston will return to Washington on Dec. 2, in time for the opening of congress on Dec. 4. They will be at home during the winter at their apartments in the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City.

Senator Thurston's bride is a highly gifted young woman, whose mother was Miss Leadora Finlayson of the well known old southern family of that name. She vivacious and a good conversationalist. Her father, Major William J. Purman, at the breaking out of the civil war, entered the army and fought in the battles of Gettysburg, Meigs, Crane, Sprague and Meade. He was a leading member of the constitutional convention of Florida, and in reconstruction days was elected to congress from that state.

The letter of thanks to Corinne S. Brown was signed by the members present. Edith Wright, who was the guest of the afternoon, became a member of the club. The communication from the Women's club of Salt Lake was read and received the approval of the club. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Sarah Taylor, 433 Twenty-second street, Friday afternoon, Dec. 1.

THE STUFF THAT MAKES HEROES

THAT'S WHAT ADMIRAL GHERARDI'S SON POSSESSES.

Conspicuous Gallantry Displayed by the Young Ensign in Saving the Lines During Storm at Porto Rico

Washington, Nov. 18.—The navy department has given out an account of the conspicuous gallantry of Ensign W. R. Gherardi in the recent terrific hurricane which swept across Porto Rico. It was forwarded by Captain Snow, commanding the United States naval station in San Juan, who inclosed letters of Lieutenant Colonel Carr of the Fifth cavalry and others concerning the daring exploit.

The statement forwarded to the department shows that when the storm was at its height, Ensign Gherardi and H. J. Jimmes, a civil engineer, ran along the beach to the point where the ship was being dragged by the terrific force of the wind. The schooner Conception, loaded with 150 emigrants from San Domingo, and the steamer Visasco were in great distress. Some of the passengers were jumping overboard. The statement goes on as follows:

"Gherardi at once plunged into the water with his clothes on and began dragging the unfortunate from the waves and bringing them to the shore. He ordered those on board to throw a line to the shore, so as to make fast, but they were so terrorized that they were unable to do anything but jump into the water, where they were taken out by Gherardi and Jimmes and brought to the shore. There were from four to six people, women and children, who did not dare to jump into the water. They were told to do so, but remained where they were and were undoubtedly lost, as the schooner went to pieces.

"The rescued numbered nearly 150 souls. The steamer Visasco was then being towed by a few hundred yards off. Gherardi called for a life line and forming a party of rescuers in a line, joining hands, extending out into the water, himself at the head, he soon had hold of the line and, bringing it to the shore, fastened the end securely to a neighboring tree. The line climbed down and along the line and were safely landed.

Ensign Gherardi is a son of Rear Admiral Gherardi, retired.

MAJOR McDOWELL DEAD.

Was Best Known Citizen in Private Life in Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 18.—Major Henry Clay McDowell, probably the best known citizen of Kentucky in private life, died this morning after a long illness of heart trouble. He served with distinction in the civil war on the staff of General Rosecrans and since the war has been a prominent Republican.

He married Anna Clay, granddaughter of Henry Clay and purchased the historic Ashland, Clay's country seat in the suburbs of Lexington, where he resided. He was a famous entertainer, and every important personage who visited the blue grass region was his guest. He was president of the Lexington & Eastern railway and a successful breeder of trotting horses.

Thomas M. McDowell, a noted western turfman is his son. McDowell was born in 1832.

MAYO
Like Caesar's Wife, Beyond Suspicion—Only Three More Days for Free Consultation at the Kenyon Hotel, Salt Lake City—MAYO'S Great Cures.

It is no longer a hearsay, but a positive fact that defies contradiction—the Mayo remedies are the medicines of the nineteenth century. Thirty days ago Mayo was looked upon with suspicion. Today he is blessed and honored by the sick people of your city. This is the result of having a medicine that cures where others fail to touch the first rung of the ladder of relief. It is a positive fact that some of the most stubborn and baffling diseases of a man have been completely cured in this short space of time by the use of the Mayo Remedies. Each disease is treated with an imported specific that is guaranteed to cure or your money refunded. Mayo is an X-ray expert. He is provided with the most recent and expensive developments of the X-ray apparatus, whereby he is enabled to see the most remote part of the human body. Thereby he is enabled to give an absolute and accurate diagnosis of the most stubborn and hidden trouble.

Mayo has 10,000 sworn testimonials of the most remarkable cures ever performed in the annals of medical history. He is a regular graduate, receiving his education in the old country, and was an associate of the late Morrell McKenzie.

Mayo giving the last dose of his wonderful cure for paralysis to the beautiful daughter of Mrs. C. H. Hunter of No. 206 Detroit street, Cleveland, Ohio.

MAYO VICTORIES.

Monstrous Parasite Removed. Rheumatic and Paralytic Cripples and the Nervous, Dyspeptic, Asthmatic, Epileptic and Pleurisy Sufferers cured by their wonderful system of medicines.

Consultation and Examination FREE, at HOTEL KENYON Until Tuesday, November 21st, the Last Day.

MAYO CURES Have puzzled the whole Medical Fraternity because he has completely cured the very patients they have been trying in vain for years to cure. He uses certain secret preparations imported from Europe. His treatment is Quick and Permanent and he guarantees a cure in every case. He undertakes and gives $100 for every case he cannot cure. In this way he has made thousands of friends among grateful patients who have been cured by his marvelous system of medicines.

Mayo's record as a Healer surpasses that of any other man, and the remarkable cures that he has performed show that Mayo's treatment is not only the quickest and absolutely certain, but the cheapest and the best.

The extraordinary cures of various diseases performed by the renowned Mayo treatment has been the talk of two continents and is as far different from the work of other specialists as the electric light is from the tallow dip. His remedies are all foreign productions. They root out disease, clean the system of all poison germs, revitalize the blood, and raise the sick and weary out of their physical distress and place them among the well people of the earth.

Mayo's Wonderful Tapeworm Remedy!

Mr. A. C. Lee, 664 S. State St., has had a tapeworm for six years and has tried several times to be relieved, but without avail. Friday evening Mayo's TAPEWORM REMEDY was given to him, and to the astonishment of everybody in sixty minutes the tapeworm came, head and all. On examination it proved to be eighty feet in length. Mr. A. C. Lee went home the happiest man in the district, having suffered no inconvenience after taking the Tapeworm Remedy or after the worm was removed. The Tapeworm can be seen at the office of the Hotel Kenyon.

JOHN WATSON, 336 S. Third W.—His little girl had a tapeworm for two years. Mayo's Tapeworm Remedy removed it.

MR. A. PELKEY, 374 W. Temple, went home the happiest man in Salt Lake. A night long to be remembered by the inhabitants of Salt Lake.

MR. N. J. Groomland, 275 West Fifth North street, had rheumatism and kidney troubles of fifteen years standing, unable to walk without a cane for more than a year.

Michael Ungerer, aged 61, sciatic rheumatism; bedridden for six weeks; unable to walk without crutches.

Mr. Burgess, aged 40, sciatic rheumatism in hip and ankle; limbs stiff, and unable to bear weight.

Mrs. Kelo, aged 63, rheumatism in knee and foot, limb swollen.

NERVOUSNESS.

CAUSE—In this world of work, worry and anxiety, it is quite common to find even young men and women suffering to a great extent by this terrible visitation, nervousness, caused in almost all cases by neglect and abuse of the common laws of health, such as want of exercise, too much sitting, following an unhealthy employment, too early schooling, mental anxiety, trouble and worry, high pressure, bad habits, overwork, youthful excesses and dissipation.

The symptoms of nervousness are almost too numerous to mention; the sufferer knows and feels that he is ill, yet he is at a loss how to account for it. He becomes fretful and peevish, losing confidence in himself and energy for business pursuits. His sleep is restless, being often troubled with fearful dreams, which cause him to jump and start in his sleep. His memory becomes weakened, he feels timid and restless, and is usually confused and in an easily excited state.

In all cases MAYO'S Curative Syrup should be taken. It will act as a tonic and appetite builder, and a few doses will be sufficient to dispel the depressed feeling will entirely disappear; this medicine purifies the blood, tones the vital functions and gives renewed energy and power to both body and mind. Men and women whose nervous system has run down will find this medicine the greatest nerve invigorator they have ever tried. We have unbounded faith in this medicine because it acts alike in every case; we can justify our beliefs by results; we have never lost a patient, and delicate children, frail and nervously exhausted women in thousands are ready to bear witness to the WONDERFUL CURES, MIRACULOUS RESULTS ACHIEVED BY MAYO'S CURATIVE SYRUP.

This is no idle boasting; all I say and is fully open to inspection; my patients are willing to give their testimony if properly approached.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Young men who suffer from the follies of youth can avail themselves of the Mayo new treatment before it is too late.

Very few are aware of the dangers that hover over them every minute of their lives when afflicted with this malady.

Middle-aged men, many of the age of thirty-five to sixty, suffering from nervous prostration, loss of vigor, and a weakening in a manner not to be accounted for, can and should be cured.

We know that thousands suffering the effect of these vices have been disappointed, that they are discouraged, and have almost given up ever being cured. To all such we desire to say that so long as they continue to experiment with specific remedies or appliances represented to cure such diseases they are likely to meet with nothing but disappointment. No two cases are exactly alike, and no one remedy ever has been, or ever can be, prepared to meet the requirements of all. We have made a careful study of these diseases in all their varied forms and complications, and with the aid of an almost unlimited experience in adapting treatment to individual cases, we are enabled to give relief after all others have utterly failed.

DON'T DESPAIR! DON'T GIVE UP!—Let the six and weary rejoice, their days are not yet numbered. In this medicine they have a friend and help in the hour of hopelessness and trial.

NO MATTER how much money you have spent. NO MATTER how bad you are, there is yet hope. Mayo's Curative Syrup, 50c a bottle. Mayo's Curative Syrup, 50c a bottle.
